August/September 2011 Back To School Newsletter

Dear Parents/Riders:

Welcome to all of our new riders. Our riding academy provides riders the opportunity to grow and develop within a well-rounded educational equestrian program. Riders are able to pursue their love of horses, have the opportunity for the world of competition, develop sound horse management practices, and at the highest level, the opportunity to develop into horse professionals through our work study program in partnership with local high schools. Check out our website to read more about our Professional Staff, Instructors and Assistants.

Congratulations are in order to

Sydney Gordon, Maddie Morgan, Madilynn Morgan and Lauren Neumeister for completing their level I requirements

Jaclyn Beckley, Stephanie Rucci and Jane Sutcliff made it to the semifinals or finals at The American Quarter Horse Youth World Show quite an honor. Taylor Bevis, Morgan Justiss, and Brittany Lynch qualified to compete as well. All are all long term students who got their start at The Equestrian Reserve. After years of dedication they qualified in both English and Western divisions for this World Show. Jane received the Justin Boots $2000 Scholarship Rookie of the Year award. Morgan received an equestrian scholarship to UGA. Madison Beasley won Champion in the Western Pleasure Novice Division at the National Snaffle Bit Association Show. We are so proud of all of these prior students.

Please check out our website for great pictures from the AQHYA World Show.
